Born: Tuesday, December 23, 1958

Died: Sunday, November 25, 2018

Francesca Alexandra Meredith, went to heaven on Sunday, November 25, This year in glorious sunshine radiating the brilliance she brought to the world, her Family, her friends, and her husband, Wil throughout her life. The Monday after her gift to heaven, it rained because the world was crying for losing an earthly angel, whose spirit, gentle heart and loving soul now shines on each one of us who knew and loved her. Wil, her husband, her family, her multitude of friends know our Francesca was pure in her devotion to all living beings, and animals. She was smart enough to pretend her husband was just as smart, shrewd enough to ever let him be lonely all the while humbling herself without regret or retribution. Francesca was truly a humangel who graced Wil's life and the hearts she touched with her wisdom, her strength, her vitality, her beauty leaves a permanent presence that will remain with everyone who knew and loved her. Most by Me, her husband Wil, who repeats every moment of my life that I love my darling girl. Always did, still do, always will. Heaven is lucky to have you, my sweet Francesca Meredith. You will bring a smile to God, and he will bring everlasting happiness to you.
