Janet Williamson, age 79, daughter of the late Estelle Clarke, passed away on Palm Sunday after a hard-fought battle against stage four pancreatic cancer. she is survived by her husband of 46 years, Phillip Williamson, and loved by countless nieces, nephews, and cousins. Janet loved watching the spring flowers bloom, Playing cards and board games, building puzzles, and a good victorian romance movie. She had a deep love of Ireland and always talked of retiring there. She had been reoffered to often as the glue of the family. She was a fiercely kind woman who always kept in touch and kept others in touch. She was the baker of many birthday cakes and always knew when to have brownies on hand to cheer you up. She loved to bake and cook, even when she couldn't enjoy what she made. What was important to Janet was watching everyone else enjoy it. Janet had a laugh that could light up a room and the world is a little less bright without her in it
